

The After School Programs of Honey Creek Community School present

Piano Lessons

DESCRIPTION: Students will learn the "ABC's" of piano performance and musicianship. Lessons will consist of classical piano teaching in a nurturing environment with special emphasis on complete music literacy and integrative "music as a language" learning. This includes aural skills, piano technique, rhythm, solfege, singing, sight-reading, and music theory.

MEET THE INSTRUCTOR: Joshua Jobst is a classical pianist, vocalist, composer, and music pedagogue. He began piano studies at age four and attended on scholarship Interlochen Arts Academy. He holds a Masters degree in Piano Performance and a Bachelors degree in Piano Pedagogy, and is the recipient of many music awards and prizes, including the prestigious Franz Liszt Award. He is the author of two music books, Pitch Paths: A Method for Absolute Pitch Development and PianoVoce: Beginning Music Language. Mr. Jobst is also a professional photographer and cinematographer, enjoys riding motorcycles, and lives in Ann Arbor, MI with his wife and two children.
